VULCAN HOCKEY TEAM CONCLUDES SEASON

The local hockey management took full advantage of the drop in temperature and arranged a game between Gleichen Gunners and Vulcan at the local arena last Thursday. The ice was the finest of the season and the game was perhaps the best seen here for a long time. The score ended 5-5 this making the fourth tie game between the clubs with one win for Gleichen at Gleichen.

What will be the last game this season was played on Saturday night between Calgary Scots Fruit and Vulcan which resulted in a close game with the Calgary boys winning 3-2. The score was against the run of play, but the boys seemed to be completely out of luck from Roy outwards.

The hockey executive wish to thank the faithful fans who stayed with them during a poor hockey season; the boys who composed the team and did their best at all times; the rink committee for their helpfulness and courtesy, and trust that with more favorable conditions, both as regards weather and finance, Vulcan will yet go a long way in Canada's national game.

LOCAL BOWLING NEWS

Two weeks ago the prizes offered at our local bowling alley were free auto trips to Calgary and free bowling games at the Gibson alleys in Calgary, for the four men and women having the highest scores of that week. The winners being: gents, Jim Flynn, Walter Antrim, Roy Sedene and Steve Mikulowek; ladies, Mrs. Fletcher, Miss Cairns, Isobel Flood and Mary Zang. These people journeyed to Calgary on Saturday last, and played with Calgary's best bowlers.

The Calgary bowlers won both the ladies and gents' contests and they are planning a visit to Vulcan in the near future. These games were greatly enjoyed by everyone participating, and we hope to show them a good time also during their promised visit.

The highest scores and first prize winners for last week's local contest were as follows: ladies, Mrs. McAllister, score of 201 (average of three games) winning a box of stationery; gents, Steve Mikulowek, score of 271 (average of three games), prize a flannel shirt.

The children of the public school who rendered such a pleasing program at the recent oratorical contest in the Vulcan Theatre were guests of Betty Wright at the home of her parents Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Wright on Friday last. The house was nicely decorated with tulips and daffodils and the twenty-six children who gathered there displayed considerable artistry and natural wit as their different talents contributed to the evening's fun. At the close, hearty thanks were tendered Mr. and Mrs. Wright who are always so pleased to help and encourage the efforts of all children.

B.C. ACCIDENT VICTIM HAS RELATIVES HERE

Funeral services were held on Sunday afternoon, March 8, in the United Church, Pincher Creek for the late Oliver Baker Godfrey (39 years) whose death by accident occurred at 3:45 a.m. on Thursday, March 5 at Bonington Falls, B. C. Rev. N. W. Whitmore, B.A., conducted the service in the church and read the burial service at the graveside. A. B. McMurdo sang "Where Roses Never Fade." H. O. Purkiss accompanying the solo and the hymns. Pillows, wreaths and sprays of flowers from near and far were banded high on the rostrum, and the church was filled with sympathizing friends.

The six young men, friends of the deceased who bore the bier were: Henry Callahan, John Jackson, Don Watson, Louis Allison, Duncan McKerricker and Lloyd Purkiss.

The young man left Pincher Creek last October to visit his sister, Mrs. J. Gilker at Bonington Falls, B.C., and on November 1 accepted a position on the mechanical staff of the West Kootenay Power and Light company at Upper Bonington. At the time of the accident he was on the company's construction force in connection with the Corra Linn power development. His body was found wrapped around the shaft in the separator plant. It was conjectured that he was preparing to do some greasing or possibly reaching over to screw the grease cup when his clothing made the fatal contact with the set-screw on the collar of the revolving shaft. Although the accident was not witnessed it is known that death was instantaneous.

The body was brought to Pincher Creek on Friday by his sister, Mrs. Gilker of Bonington Falls, B.C. Oliver was the youngest son of Mrs. E. J. Scott and the late Mr. Edward Baker Godfrey. Deep sympathy goes out to the bereaved mother, Mrs. E. J. Scott and Mr. Scott and to his only sister (Evelyn) Mrs. Gilker and two brothers, Sheldon Godfrey of Munson, and Walter Godfrey of Radisson, Sask., the latter brother being present for the funeral.

Deceased was a nephew of Messrs. William and Peter Bowie of Vulcan.

After the prizes were distributed a most delicious luncheon was served by Mrs. Morley. Dancing commenced soon after and continued until the small morning hours.

WALKER, MRS. ROSS	Reid Hill

Now is the time to get into this Everybody Wins "Weekly Payroll" Campaign with a shout, for the credits are much higher at this time. All workers will receive Bonus Credits during THEIR first week and those added to the "Booster Week" credits, make it easy for an entirely new entry to b among the leaders by the end of the week.

You have the opportunity of earning in six short weeks, a Chevrolet Sedan worth $1012. A car that many, many people save and scrape for months and even a year to acquire. Second prize is $300 in merchandise and there are four other extra cash awards. But the really big feature is the fact that you are paid back each week, in cash, $1.00 out of every $5.00 or 20 per cent. of every dollar you collect. YOU CANNOT LOSE.

Several New Entries

The Reid Hill territory is now represented by Mrs. Ross Walker, who is well known over the entire territory and has a reputation of being a sincere and determined worker. The people of Reid Hill are behind her and they are known as a community that "put over" anything they enter. Andrew Erskine is the popular representative from Lomond. His genial disposition and many friends made through working in his father's store should turn him many subscriptions. Look him up in next week's standing.

Miss Emogene Sevrens of Milo is another new entry this past week. She has a ready smile, is energetic and has many friends. Her work in the telephone office and the help of her brother Leland, should make her a real contender in a short time. Mrs. Lily Jacobson of the Wave Shop, Vulcan, entered the campaign this week with a bang and will make others sit up and take notice of her during the next few weeks. Her many friends are watching her—predicting that she will be among the leaders.

Miss Gertrude D. Roebuck is the well known and well liked representative from Kirkcaldy and the south-west territory. Miss Roebuck having lived in this vicinity all her life and having taught in the Kirkcaldy school the past year has a host of friends who will back her to the limit.

Another new entry this week is Mrs. J. L. (Tom) Shaw of Twin Coulee. Being well known and popular, and the only worker on the entire west side, we are sure that Mrs. Shaw will make a place for herself in this big race. With the support of her many friends and the people living west of Vulcan, there is no reason why the Chevrolet sedan cannot find a home at Twin Coulee.

Give That Promise Now. Friends of candidates who have promised them a subscription should give it to their favorite during "Booster Week" which ends next Thursday night. They will receive the largest credits of the campaign this week. 12,500 Extra Credits are given workers for every five years of subscriptions turned in to this office up to next Thursday night. All these workers are "Boosters." The Advocate is the telephone office and the help of her brother Leland, should make her a real contender in a short time.

Who will be in the lead in the first count? Who will be among the quitters? Who will take advantage of the "booster and bonus" credits now in effect and make the week from the 19th to the 26th a banner week for themselves? Who will "throw up the sponge" because of bad weather or because they find that a little work is required? Next week's Advocate will tell lots. Watch for it.

Workers, remember this: Everything worth while is hard to put over, but remember also "IT CAN BE DONE."

Come on, let's do it, and NOW!

THAT GENTLE ART

In the encyclopedias of 2050 A.D., readers will search for information regarding habits and activities of their ancestors of 1931, and under the head of Sport they find the sub-head "Boeing." It will no doubt read something like this:

"Boeing was a by-product of a winter sport known as hockey. In this sport, six strong men were pitted against six other strong men on a sheet of ice of stipulated size. A circular piece of rubber about three inches in diameter and three-quarters inch thick, was shoved back and forth over the ice, the object being to lodge it in the goals at either end. This was not done by hand, but by peculiarly shaped sticks, and many rules governed the play. To enforce these rules, officials were stationed on the ice. Surrounding the battle ground, was a strong, high railing, behind which the "boomers" stood, safely protected from the participants and the officials. From this security the "boomers" kept up an incessant boeing which sounded as spelled. This custom reached its height in the third decade of the twentieth century and was a strange revival of a custom of the sixteenth century known as "bull baiting." There was this difference however which proved our ancestors of the sixteenth century to be of a superior type. They conscientiously believed that by driving the animals to a frenzy, they made the meat more tender.

Our ancestors of the twentieth century however, had no such justification. They did not eat the players and officials after one of these orgies. On the contrary they mingled with them on quite human terms. But the whole purpose of the boeing was to enrage and harass those engaged on the ice, in order that they might attack each other with ferocity. As a rule the players had remarkable self-control and rarely responsible as the more blood thirsty desired. The effect on the officials was more apparent. Gradually their morale was weakened under the maledictions and strange guttural cries hurled at them until at the end of each season, great numbers of these were physical and mental wrecks. They had no recourse as their tormentors gounded them only from the security of barriers.

Strangely enough, officials and players were agreed as to how the game should be played. But each band of boomers boomed if any but his own side was permitted to play with the rubber disc.

Finally, matters reached such a pass that only the most hardened of human beings would enter the arena and subject himself to this form of torture. The boomers found themselves in the unhappy position of having all their boeing organs intact, but with nobody to boo at.

As a last effort to revive this fine game of hockey, it was ordained by act of Parliament that the Chief High Boomers themselves should be put on the ice to demonstrate just how this game should be played. This was a very disastrous move as it was speedily shown, that they knew nothing whatever about it.

So died a very fine sport, strangled by the spectators.

W. D. Albright who presides over Beveridge Station in the Peace River country contributes valuable information each week in the Grande Prairie Herald which must be highly appreciated by farmers generally. We frankly confess we find excellent copy each week in his weekly budget. We hope he continues this fine service to his fellow citizens for many years to come.

WHAT YOU EXPECT YOU GET

An anecdote of pioneer days which holds much wisdom for us today concerns two pioneer settlers pushing their way into the sparsely settled West. The first pulled up his team in front of a cabin and addressed an elderly man sitting on a stump and puffing contentedly a corn-cob pipe. "Hey, Old Timer, what kind of folks are there around these parts?" "What kind of folks were there where you came from?" countered the resident. "Why they were the meanest, slickest, most unpleasant people I ever saw."

"Well," drawled the old pioneer, "I reckon you'll find the folks around here just about the same." A few weeks later another settler came along, asked a similar question, and was answered by the same counter interrogatory. He replied briskly, "Why the folks round about where I came from were the salt of the earth, the finest, fairest and most helpful folks you could find anywhere. They were neighbors we just hated to leave." "Well," answered the local sage, "I reckon you'll find the folks here just about the same." To a large degree, we get from people just about what we expect from them. A negative attitude toward life brings correspondingly negative returns.—Rotarian.

BEWAIL LOST ART

Pennmanship is a lost art. How often we hear this fact bemoaned in school and college. Our own children's note books make us cringe and we proudly tell them that at their age our writing was at least legible.

What is the reason. For one thing children do not have to write as much to-day as they did a generation ago. Thirty and forty years ago the school child was compelled to make long laborious copies and this gave him constant practice. Children used their hands and finally knowledge reached their heads. Now they use their heads and finally it reaches their hands.

Letter writing used to be an art in itself. The educated class of the 18th and 19th centuries was the governing class. They were proud of their erudition and the art of fine letter-writing was a necessary social grace. Compare our clumsy attempts with the beautiful letters, now in book form, of a host of celebrities of the 19th century. Now-a-days it is a real task to write a letter and only duty drives us to it. It is so much easier to telephone, telegraph, or dictate to a stenographer. Our modern means of communication eliminate the individual more and more. We sign our name from time to time and make rude notes of business transactions and only then does our pen leave the pocket.

It is a pity. The beautiful, regular well-formed writing of our fathers makes us envious.—Brampton Conservator.

BANK WITH BANKERS

Farmers would keep their finances in far better shape if they did their banking at banks rather than with merchants, implement manufacturers and fertilizer dealers. There is a heap of meaning in the story of the hot dog vendor whose stand was beside the palatial quarters of a bank. When asked to cash a cheque for a friend he refused on the grounds that he had entered into a contract whereby he was bound to lend no money and the bank agreed to sell no hot-dogs.—Farmers Advocate.

DEPRESSIONS

A good many experienced business men will corroborate the statements of a writer in the Edmonton Journal who says that during his forty odd years in the West he has experienced five of these periodical financial depressions, namely 1895, 1907, 1914, 1922 and 1930. He says that it seems to work out that out of every 7 years we have five and a half of good times and two and one half of hard times. It looks as if these hard times were predestined.

Each depression was regarded as the worst ever experienced. That too is characteristic. In the writer's opinion the existing depression differs only from its predecessors in the fact that we are more involved financially and require more money to carry us through. So far as actual lack of money is concerned, it is no more scarce than during the other depressions. There is a time for everything; a time to buy and a time to sell, a time to borrow and a time to pay up. The trouble with the people is that we only make use of the time to borrow. As far as paying back is concerned it is not in our repertory and does not concern us in the least.

WOULD HE SO?

In the January Bookman there is an essay on the Country Town, which should be enjoyed by westerners. Mr. Lloyd the writer spoke very kindly of Eastern Canadian small towns, but spoke very harshly of the towns of the west. He divided light from darkness at North Bay, and says "now confess without a quail that I too, would rather be dead than alive in any town of less than a hundred thousand people, that I have ever seen west of North Bay. A more dull, dreary, druggie tailed, spiritless and infernally ugly place than the western small town, I have never seen, nor do I expect to see."

One comment made on this outburst is with regard to Mr. Lloyd's statement as to where he would prefer to be dead than alive, that is a personal matter with him, and one upon which the rest of humanity doubtless is wholly indifferent. It is also suggested that he never went through a hockey season in a western town. If he had, he might have chosen a number of uncomplimentary adjectives, but never "dreary, druggie-tailed and spiritless."

Lord Dawson of Penn., says that "the Elizabethans paid little heed to health." His opinion was held at that time by the Spanish survivors of the Armada.

There is rumor of the engagement of Major Wm. Herdridge, K.C., D.S.O., M.C., newly appointed minister to Washington, and Miss Mildred Bennett, sister of Premier Bennett. The rumor has not yet received official confirmation.

NAE SAE BAD

Young Angus had been out for the evening with his best girl. When he arrived home he found his father sitting up. The old man looked up and shook his head.

"Hae ye been out, wi' yon lassie again?" he asked.

"Aye, dad," replied young Angus.

"Why do ye look sae worried?"

"I was just wonderin' how much the evening cost."

"No more than half a crown, dad."

"Aye? That was no sae much."

"It was a' she had," said Angus.

BIBLE IN SCHOOLS

Lethbridge Instituting a Course of Scriptural Reading in Schools of City

By a unanimous vote, the Lethbridge School Board decided that bible teaching in the schools should follow a prescribed form. At present all or any religious instruction is left to the discretion of the teacher. The recommendation of the Lethbridge Board is that Hurlburt's story of the bible be used as a reference text in junior grades up to Grade IV. For higher grades, the bible readings for schools as outlined by the Ontario department of education, will be used.

It is proposed that the grades will be opened each day by repeating the Lord's prayer, and a systematic reading of the scripture.

If any parent, or guardian objects to his child or ward taking part in the religious exercises, the teacher is to permit the child to leave the room during the interval, and if a teacher is unwilling to comply with requirements he is to notify the board in writing stating reasons.

Jimmie—Daddy, what was the date of the battle of Waterloo? Daddy—I don't know. Jimmie—You don't know? And to think that tomorrow I shall be punished for your ignorance!

HEAVY TAXATION OF OUR FARMERS

Farming Community Suffering From Unjust Taxation

An article by Lieut. Col. W. G. Mac Kendrick, appeared on the editorial page of the Calgary Herald, dealing with the injustice which farmers suffer in taxation. We quote extracts:

The present depression in Canada brings to the front the fact that Canada's primary producers, our farmers labor under an unjust share of taxation in proportion to their meagre incomes.

Our unjustness to the farming community seems to lie in the fact that we tax his capital, consisting of his land, his barn and his home; and, if after a meagre living for his family, he does not earn sufficient cash to pay his taxes, we, under the law, step in and seize a portion of his capital, thereby rendering him less able to pay taxes the following year and thereafter.

It is fair to ask how long would our great financial institutions and our outstanding manufacturers last if all their capital and hidden resources were taxed yearly, whether they made a profit or not, as is done to the farmer.

In the early days of the Canadian Pacific Railway (when cash was harder to procure than it is even today), we had taxed the C.P.R. capital, as we are taxing the farmer's capital, where would that magnificent, well-managed railroad have landed?—Undoubtedly upon the scrap heap.

Today we see our large farm implement manufacturers largely idle because of the inability of the farmer to buy and pay for new farm machinery. What would happen to the Massey-Harris Company if we had taxed its capital for the years that this chaotic condition has and will last?

No government, of course, would be unwise enough to do that. Yet, that is the way they have been treating our basic industry for years, until they are broken or breaking and we wonder, as we motor through the country, at the ever-growing weed acreage all over Ontario.

When man fails to bring forth the much desired remedy for our ills, we may turn in to the Book of Books, and note that in 1490, B.C., our Creator, with wisdom and foresight not possessed by men, laid down His law re this matter (good for one thousand generations, which time has not expired) for His nation, Israel, their successors and assigns of Abraham's seed, which we Anglicans declare each Sunday are "US," and that law is that "one tenth of thine increase" was to be devoted to the state and church because the nation in those days was the congregation and the congregation was the nation.

Two conditions for prosperity were demanded of the nation by Jehovah, one-seventh of our days, Sunday observance, and one-tenth of our increase, which is not, you will note, one-tenth of our capital, but is to be taken out of increase only.

If we continue taxing the farmer upon his capital, i.e., his land, his barn and his home, then, in fairness all capital in organized companies, whether banks, manufacturers or others, must likewise be taxed. Thine increase, however, is God's law, therefore it is a sound, wise and just law for Ontario and Canada to adopt to relieve the present situation and make our law conform to those immutable laws of God, given for our guidance and welfare forever.

NEW YEAR BRINGS OTHER VALUES

Entire Scale of Prices is Altering in 1931, With Consequent Readjustments

There are reasons why the year 1931 will long be remembered in farming history. It has been a period of readjustment of values. Markets have changed. The prices of farm products have so dropped that it has been a matter of study to discover in what way any of them may be made to pay.

Perhaps never before has such intelligent thought and care gone into the farm problems. Whether grains raised should be marketed or fed, what types of cows, swine, poultry, and so on bring best results for feeding and care; in what department can most profit or any profit be shown.

It will be no small triumph for the farmer who has successfully readjusted his affairs, and is able at the end of 1931, to show progress in new phases of farm industry.

With the falling prices of feed stuffs, and with his dollar having a much greater purchasing power than formerly, it is difficult to predict just what may be the new developments and accomplishments of farm life in 1931.

For instance, there is a growing realization of the value of barley for all classes of livestock, quite the equal in food value of corn. It is a Canadian product and its growth in greater quantities, would remove the need for importing such quantities of high priced livestock foods as has been the custom.

GOVERNMENT ANALYST

GIVES REPORT ON

ALBERTA BEERS

Quality is Better than Pre-War

Rumors have reached us regarding the Quality of Alberta Beers and in order to settle the question, samples were taken out of Distributors Ltd. stock and sent to Dr. James A. Kelso, Provincial Analyst, University of Alberta. The following four questions were asked of Dr. Kelso:—

- (1) Is the Beer sufficiently matured?
- (2) How does it compare in quality with the Alberta Beer analysed by you in pre-war days.
- (3) Is the Beer wholesome in every way and free from all foreign substances.
- (4) What comments have you to make on the keeping qualities of the Beer submitted.

THESE QUESTIONS WERE ANSWERED BY DR. KELSŐ AS FOLLOWS:

- (1) All sample are, in my opinion, sufficiently matured.
- (2) In my opinion all of the Beers are of better quality than pre-war product, which was often cloudy. Beers tested by me during past year are much more uniform in strength, extract, etc., than those before the war.
- (3) I would consider the Beers wholesome in every way and free from deleterious constituents.
- (4) Judging from the forcing test all samples of bottle goods tested are efficiently pasteurized. The freezing test shows the Beer of satisfactory keeping qualities, with proper elimination of such proteins as are thrown out of solution by low temperatures. The draft Beer, not being pasteurized, could not be subject to forcing or freezing test, and I consider samples of such Beer properly matured and of satisfactory keeping qualities if kept under correct conditions.

"The bottle liquors, with the exception of the Porter and Stout were given a forcing and freezing test. This is done by keeping the Beer at a temperature of 90 to 100 degrees for one week, then freezing and thawing in chipped ice. In all the samples there was neither cloudiness or any sediment, tests showing perfectly clear."

The original report is on file at Distributors Ltd., head office Calgary, and is open to public inspection. Space only prevents us from publishing the report in detail.

Positive proof that no artificial or foreign ingredients are used in the manufacture of Alberta Beers. Highest quality ingredients only, scientifically combined by master brewers

1930 FARM LABOR FALLS CHEAPER

Average Wage in Canada in 1930
Was $34.00 for Summer

The wage scale for farm labor has declined throughout Canada in 1930. The farmer is unable to pay on the old scale and necessity forces him to economize as much as possible on hired labor.

For the whole of Canada, the average wages per month of farm help during the summer season of 1930 were for men $34, as against $40 in 1929, and for women $20 as against $23. The value of board is placed at $22 for men, as compared with $23 in 1929 and for women at $18 as against $20. The total wages and board thus amounted to $56, as against $63 for men, and $38 as against $43 for women.

For Alberta the monthly wages of men last year was estimated at $60 as against $68 the year before and for women the wages in 1930 were placed at $41 as against $46 in 1929. Canada was Great Britain's fourth best customer in 1930.

The C.P.R. has under construction in the Calgary district, a mileage of 63.6 and in the province 105 miles of rail.

TO GET SEED GRAIN

Seed grain is to be supplied through Western Canada only to those who cannot obtain the same through their own resources.

The task of distributing the seed provided by the Dominion Seed branch will be in charge of municipalities. Farmers who qualify for this relief, will be charged the market price of No. 1 Northern in the locality where supplied, plus five cents extra for cleaning and ten cents for dockage. Municipalities must be responsible for twenty-five per cent. of the eventual loss, the remainder to be absorbed by provincial and dominion governments.

All applications will be made to the municipal councils in organized territories. These will be approved by the councils. The councils forward approved applications to the provincial government. All seed distributed will meet the requirements of the Dominion Seed Act.

BENNETT'S RUSSIA EMBARGO RIGHT

His Action in Russian Matters Deserves Canadian Support

Throughout the metropolitan press of Canada, the opinion seems to be general that Prime Minister Bennett's action in the matter of Russian trade is deserving of unanimous Canadian support.

In prohibiting the importation from Soviet Russia of Russian coal, pulpwood, lumber, asbestos and furs, the Canadian Minister is showing a conviction which is followed up by action.

The recent visit to Washington is said to have had for one of its purposes a discussion of the Russian situation. Since then it is understood that United States is moving to place an embargo on Russian coal, lumber and pulpwood. While this is being done naturally for the protection of American interests, yet it will react in favor of Canadian trade.

The American embargo finds a sympathetic following amongst Americans. The editor of the Wall Street Journal said: "In the larger aspect Russia has declared war on Canada, United States, Britain and Western Europe generally. It is Russia's avowed purpose to destroy religion, home and property rights."

Russia's project of dumping her goods below cost wherever she can find a market is her form of economic warfare, and there have been Soviet threats of military warfare to follow. In this light it seems sheer insanity for Western nations to supply Russia with credit and goods.

Hon. E. B. Ryckman in announcing Canada's decision, made note of the forced labor in the transport and cutting of Russian lumber, and in the coal mining. Political prisoners are exploited, standards of living fall below any level conceived in Canada, and the Communist despotism seek to impress its will on the world.

Paid Soviet agents, it is believed, are present in larger cities of Canada. Their methods are to foment industrial strife.

The total deliveries from Turner Valley oil companies to the Imperial and Regal refineries in the month of February were 132,267 barrels compared with 156,658 barrels in January, according to a statement made by officials. The daily average in February was 4,725 barrels compared with 5,054 barrels in January. Home deliveries in February were 8,511 barrels compared with 11,822 in January.

The grand total of oil produced in the month of December was 160,725 barrels and in November the output was 132,287 barrels.

LAUGHING YOUR HARVEST AWAY

Entrance Fee of a Bushel of Wheat
at Lethbridge Theatre Gains Great
Publicity

When he manager of the Empress Theatre at Lethbridge offered a seat in the theatre for a bushel of wheat, he furnished an item of news which circulated round the continent and over the ocean. The London Times, England, has honored the unique transaction with a clever editorial which says in part.

"The theatre manager of Lethbridge, Alberta, is an enterprising man. Prairie farmers, all eagerness to go to the play, but all poverty-stricken through the impossibility of selling their wheat, have just heard with joy that wheat will be taken as coin. They have but to bundle a bushel through the booking-office pigeon-hole and a seat is theirs in return. If so inclined they can laugh or weep away the whole of their harvest. Time was when the produce of the farm was only taken to the theatre to be presented, with good or evil will, to the actors personally, and can not be denied that livelier audiences are a likely enough result of the latest innovation.

"And the farmer who pays his bushel and is transported out of himself and his mortgages for three hours as he watches curtains rustle and sees revolvers produced, will have no regret at all and no grievance against society. If he had sold the bushel for cash which he could compare with the cash of other years, his aggrieved feelings would not be assuaged by a subsequent visit to the play.

"A more primitive time reckoned men's wealth by their beasts and fields; a later stage, now closing, measured it by the precious metals; and the progressive new world is completing the full circle and wealth will once again be measured by goods."

Miss Alexander Tolstoy, elderly daughter of the great Russian novelist, wants to come to Canada from Japan, but cannot comply with Dominion regulations. She cannot produce a passport from Russia because she is not on friendly terms with the Soviet. She desires to spend six months in Canada studying conditions, and is particularly interested in Doukhobor settlements in B.C. and the prairies as her father had much to do with the settlement of these. However so far she has been unsuccessful in securing her entrance into Canada.

WAILINGS FROM A NON RADIOIST

It Will be Evident from the Following That There are Certain Folk Who Are Not Sold on Radio

It is a far cry from the day when we listened to our first radio. Crouched on the floor in a tense circle for an entire evening, we passed a small pair of earphones back and forth with frantic eagerness, listening pop-eyed to the faint derisive cat calls that come out of the void.

The golf widow used to get sympathy, but what of the radio widow of those early days who used to sit watching friend husband far into the night, his ear sealed with earphones and various expressions chasing them selves over his countenance.

Gone are the earphones, as pathetically out of date as an old fashioned bustle. The loud speaker (rightly named) holds sway. Its best point is its entire unselfishness. The sound falls alike upon just and unjust.

After devoting the most of a misspent life to manufacturing excuses for making a fourth at bridge, it is now necessary to concoct new ones to dodge the horror of an evening with our friends who have just acquired a new radio.

All our friends have radios. It seems to be necessary, even though the home be mortgaged to have it, and instalments stretch long years ahead.

There we sit on the Chesterfield (there must be a chesterfield to sit on) and one listens from eight o'clock till midnight with no time off for good behavior, to a radio program which runs the gamut of asinine bedtime stories, cowboy songs, sow solos, lectures rudely choked off in favor of jazz and perhaps a thrilling short play when something always seems to happen to ruin the climax. Sometimes it goes back on you, and there are the series of tomcat howls, or queer faint garglings like a bathroom at 8 a.m. The owners always apologise playfully, for these extra sounds as for a naughty child, even taking all responsibility for the weather. But these interruptions always happen. And it is odd the impulse that makes an assembled gathering want to burst into twitterings of conversation, as soon as a contesting voice comes over the air.

No, I have no radio. In my apartment I do not need one. I am surrounded by neighbors who dread a moments silence, and are each equipped with one, and are paying the instalments.

Instead of a radio, I have bought swimmer's earplugs and find them satisfactory.—Lethbridge Herald.

There is no difference in food value between eggs with brown shell and those with white. The color of the shell is determined by the breed of the chicken, and the yolk depends on the diet of the hens. Pale yolks come from rations of wheat, oats, barley and milk, while highly colored foods, such as lettuce, cabbage, grass yellow corn, etc., produce more highly colored yolk. Also they grow darker with age.

PENSION BOARDS OVERWORKED

Pension Tribunals are groaning under the duties involved in the general broadening of the Pensions Act as enacted by the late Liberal government. Ordinarily the provisions involving the applications would call for a greatly increased staff. Revenue however, does not permit this, and the applications now awaiting hearing are 17,000. Part of these are an inheritance from the old pensions appeal board and the rest from refusal of applications by pension commissioners.

The pensions bill of the fiscal year will be $15,000,000, and next year is expected to reach 50 million. Last session the sum of $100,000,000 was mentioned as a probable maximum in succeeding years.

The appeal board which started a few weeks ago has heard sixty cases so far.

Population of Canada Will be Known After Census Taken

Although the actual count of population of Canada does not commence till June 1, the Dominion government is mapping out the statistics which may be reached when the census is being taken.

Amongst questions which will be asked will be certain ones dealing with unemployment and occupation. These will give the government data in regard to seasonal and periodic unemployment. United States has also introduced this new feature in its 1931 census.

Another new departure will be fuller information on all trading establishments, which will form a basis for better knowledge of the internal trading of Canada.

Agriculture—questionnaires will give much more complete information than in other census and through the population census more accurate knowledge of charitable work, etc., will be obtained.

This report when planned and executed in full detail should furnish a very complete stock sheet of national occupations and well being.

The Canadian census coincides both in point of time and many of the questions with Great Britain, Australia, New Zealand and other countries. Thus is furnished very complete data on the Empire.

North America and Europe to Confer Regarding World Production Problems

The International Institute of Agriculture has issued an invitation to attend a preparatory wheat conference to take place March 26 in Rome. Hon. Howard Ferguson will be the principal Canadian delegate; together with D. L. Smith, London representative of the Canadian Co-operative Wheat Producers and Dr. W. A. Riddell of the League of Nations.

The conference will consider in international aspect, international production, the international organization of agricultural credit, the organization of an international wheat market.

While this conference originated in the need of European nations to reach some basis of agreement it was considered incomplete without the addition of overseas wheat producing countries. European countries are—Roumania, Yugo-Slavia, Poland, Hungary, Bulgaria, Czechoslovakia, Latvia and Estonia.

United States however, will not participate in the international conference.

Not long ago there was a fire in a Jewish merchant's establishment. The assessor came round to have a look at the scene: "How did the fire start?" was the first question. "Well replied the Jew: "It may have been electric light or it may have been the neandescant light." "Yes," said the assessor "and it may have been the Israelite."

An old lady died recently in a neighboring town at the age of 105. She had milked her own cow day in and day out till she—the old lady—was 103 years old. That's a lot more respectable reading than the stories of all these old men that have lived to be a hundred through their regular sip of rum and chew of tobacco.

RED CROSS NEWS

The three-act play "The Old Fashioned Mother," which was presented at Red Cross school last Friday the 13th, was the greatest moral drama ever presented here. The play was presented under the direction of Mrs. McKinnon and great credit is due for her untiring efforts and management. The story took us back some twenty years to a little village in Canton in northern New York. It was a parable of a mother's love triumphant over the ingratitude and neglect of her children. Mrs. McKinnon in choosing her cast left nothing undone: Deborah Underhill, a mother in Israel—Miss J. Sigurdson; Wilfred Bill Pindle, leader of the choir—Miss Eve Love; Miss Lowinzy Loving Custard plain sewing and gossip—Miss Beryl Dooze; Isabel Simpson, the village belle—Miss Thora Snow; Gloria Perkins, as good as gold—Mrs. Willard Love; Sukey Pindle, the widder's mite—Dee Snow; John Underhill, the prodigal son—Fred McKinnon; Charles Underhill, the elder brother—Clay Snow; Brother Jonah Quackenbush, a whited sepulchre—George Dulton; Jeremiah Gosling "Jerry", a merry heart—Roy Fulton; Enoch Rone, an outcast and a wanderer—Willard Love; Quintus Todd, the county sheriff—Norman Love.

After the play a dance followed and everyone enjoyed themselves till the small hours of the morning.

The W.I. held their card party at the home of Mrs. Stager on last Wednesday night and enjoyable time was had. 500 was the main event and the prize winners are as follows: men's first, Orin Doane; men's second, Clare Dunham; ladies' first, Mrs. Roy Fulton; ladies' second, Mrs. Thomas Love. After the card party a very dainty lunch was served by Mrs. Stager.

Continuing, the article tells of sporting activities enjoyed this season also of the splendid work of the Young People's Dramatic Society, mentioned weekly in these columns.
